

One Of A Kind
Arranged By Kathryn Higgins

A choral reading for two voices utilizing scripture found in Genesis 1 & 2, 2 Corinthians 3, Matthew 10, Jeramiah 1, Psalm 139, 1 Corinthians 15, and Galatians 5 (NIV and MSG). This could be performed in place of a scripture reading, perhaps during worship or leading into a speaker. Experiment with setting this to background music. Can be performed holding binders. ONE is the voice of God, while TWO is the voice of man.

ONE Let us make mankind in our image, in our likeness.

TWO My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place,

ONE From the ground-

TWO -when I was woven together in the depths of the earth-

ONE I blew into his nostrils the breath of life.

TWO -your eyes saw my unformed body.

ONE A living soul!

TWO You have searched me, Lord, and you know me.

ONE Before I formed you in the womb I knew you.

TWO You hem me in behind and before -

ONE Before you were born I set you apart.

TWO For you created my inmost being.

ONE Even numbering the hairs on your head.

TWO You knit me together in my mother's womb.

ONE Fearfully and wonderfully made.

TWO Your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

ONE My children.

TWO In the image of God he created them.

ONE In my own image -

TWO -with ever-increasing glory!

ONE And God saw all that he had made, and it was very good.

TWO One of a kind.

ONE One of a kind.

ALL Each of us is an original.
