A NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR

WHAT IS THIS?

This resource was originally designed to be a guide for those participating in levels 3-4 drama monologues for Star Search. I know first-hand how difficult it can be for officers to secure leaders at a corps level, let alone ones with theatre experience. My goal was to create a resource for young actors to be able to guide themselves through the basic preparation of a monologue without needing much (or any) assistance from an instructor. My hope is that this workbook would also double as a resource for instructors; that it would ease the burden on local leadership, equipping them to direct young actors.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Each lesson is two pages, or double-sided, estimated to take 30-40 mins to complete independently. If you have a single actor interested in working on a monologue, I'd recommend handing them this package and encouraging them to do one lesson per week. There are 5 lessons in total, with a bonus page containing memorization activities.

WHAT DO I NEED?

- o Pencil
- o Printed Workbook
- o Printed Monologue
- o Bible
- o Phone/Camera
(lesson 5 only)

HOW IS THIS DIFFERENT FROM OTHER ACTING RESOURCES?

Through the use of applied theatre we can grow great qualities in our youth: independence, perseverance, and self-reflection. Each lesson is anchored in scripture with clear prompts for students to engage in thankfulness and listening prayer based on the theme of the week. Students will learn technical acting skills based in Laban and Stanislavski methods, at the same as growing their faith, digging into scripture and intentional prayer.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kathryn Higgins is the Arts Ministries Director for The Salvation Army Eastern Territory. She is a life-long learner with a keen interest in applied theatre as a means of social change. Growing up in The Salvation Army, Kathryn treasures her memories at TAM Conservatory as a teenager. She claims to have truly found her love for acting while participating in the Canadian National Improv Games. Kathryn attended Sheridan College for Music Theater Performance and worked for several years in the industry garnering credits that include Camp Rock (Disney) and Anne of Green Gables (Charlottetown Festival). In 2013, Kathryn began working for the Greater New York Division as their Dance Ministries Director, before moving up to Territorial Headquarters under the same title. Kathryn's unique experience in dance, drama, and circus arts helped to secure her current position which she has held since 2019.

LEADING A CLASS

1. CHECK IN (5 MINS)

Play a game and get to know how each actor is doing.

Scan the QR code to visit our YouTube Channel for some ideas!

2. SCRIPTURE (1 MIN)

Invite a volunteer to read the scripture at the bottom of the lesson out loud.

3. QUIET INDEPENDENT TIME (15 MINS)

Ask actors to work on their lessons independently – but to stick to the quiet reading/writing/drawing prompts under: Investigate, Analyze, Reflect and Create.

4. LOUD TIME (15 MINS)

Read out loud the prompts that require movement and speaking under Create & Do. As a group, invite actors to do the verbal and physical prompts all together, all speaking at once. Then, show and tell what they've learned.

When giving feedback, ask the class:

"What did we like?"

"What was unclear?"

"Where can they go further?"

5. NOTES & QUESTIONS (5 MINS)

Give actors a few moments to write down their observations from loud time and to ask questions.

6. PRAYER & LISTENING (5 MINS)

Read out loud the prompts under Pray and Listen to God, giving space for everyone to simply sit in His presence.

7. SCRIPTURE (1 MIN)

Invite a volunteer to read out loud the day's scripture theme once again.

Make a Scene
Level 3-4 | Lesson 1 | The Basics

My Name _____ Character Name _____
Monologue Title _____ Author _____
Scripture Reference _____

INVESTIGATE

- Read the monologue in your head and out loud.
 - Read the whole chapter of the scripture reference
- Why was this monologue written?

Who was the Author? Does who they are impact the piece? How?

CREATE

- COPY the monologue by hand, allowing your mind to go off on tangents whenever you'd like.
- HIGHLIGHT the actual lines in your newly hand-written monologue, making sure to not highlight your tangents.

REFLECT

WHAT do you want the audience to walk away knowing/feeling/thinking?

ANALYZE

WHO is your character talking to?

WHERE in the space is that person/people your character is talking to?

WHAT is your character doing while they talk?

WHERE is your character?

WHEN does this take place? (Year, Season, Time of Day, etc.)

WHY can't they keep this to themselves?

HOW did they end up in this position?

Make a Scene
Level 3-4 | Lesson 2 | Character

My Name _____ Character Name _____

People (real or fictional) who remind me of this character: _____

INVESTIGATE

Clues about your character found in the scripture:

Clues about your character found in the monologue:

Clues about your character based on the time/place they lived:

ANALYZE

How do these clues affect your performance?

REFLECT

What is the overarching motivation of the character? _____

What does the character want? Does this change through the piece? _____

What tactics do they use (or can they use) to get what they want? _____

DO

1. PRACTICE your monologue 8 times, each time selecting one word below to motivate your performance:

2. DECIDE which 2 of those words best fit for your character and infuse it into your speech and movement.

Direct	Indirect	Heavy
Light	Quick	Sustained
Bound	Free

CREATE

COSTUME: What could your character wear?

How will you get these items to practice in?

How does your character feel in this outfit?
Would they prefer to wear something else?

HELPFUL HINT

Remember to keep your movements motivated by real thoughts and feelings!

LISTEN TO GOD

ASK - Show me how my own characteristics bring love into the world?
What personal character traits do I need to work on?

PRAY

Lord, thank you for giving me a unique personality!

We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation. And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love. Romans 5:3-5 NLT

Level 3-4 | Lesson 3 | Staging

My Name _____ Character Name _____
Performance Space _____ Practice Space _____

INVESTIGATE

READ through the script, and note here any props/spatial needs mentioned. (ex. Bible, chair, step, etc.)

DECIDE if each of these items are necessary or cumbersome.

In the space you'll be performing, there are:

- Isles
- Steps
- Entrance/Exit spaces
- Levels
- Access to drama blocks
- _____
- _____

FIND 3 ways of interacting with these items to bring your piece to life.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

CREATE

DRAW a birds-eye view map of your playing space including imagined objects on the back of your monologue. DOODLE a road map of how you will use as much space as possible. JOT down where in the space other characters are and where other events to have taken place.

ANALYZE

Clues found in the script that suggest movement:

Clues found in the script that suggest stillness:

Where in the script should you be physically:

- High (Levels)

- Low (Levels)

- Towards the audience (Downstage)

- Towards the back (Upstage)

DO

1. GET UP and interact with all the imagined space and props you've created for your character.

2. PRACTICE your monologue by following your road map using as much space as you can.

Level 3-4 | Lesson 4 | Voice

My Name _____ Character Name _____

INVESTIGATE

Circle all the punctuation in the script. Ex. ! , . : " italics, bold

What other clues does the author give about how your character speaks?

In the performance space, how will everyone in the audience hear every word of your monologue? (Even the people in the back row.)

CREATE

DRAW a slash / in your script everywhere you think the character has an emotional change that affects how they speak a line.

DRAW a cloud  in at least 3 places in the script where you could take a pause for your character to contemplate what they will say next.

ANALYZE

What lines in the script could your character say to themselves?

What motivates the character to change the speed in which they speak?

What motivates the character to change the volume in which they speak?

REFLECT

Personally, what motivates me to speak differently to different people at different times? Why? _____

DO

1. PRACTICE your monologue trying out at least 3 different adjectives below. Try ones you think won't work at all and see what happens!

Breathy	Supported	Wheezy	Loud
Soft	Wobbly	Croaky	Clear
Confident	Grating	Pleasant	Annunciated
Low	High	Speedy	Modulating
	Monotone	Slow

2. NOTE in your script 3 places where these vocal prompts felt impactful.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

3. READ through your script annunciating every word as CLEARLY AS YOU CAN.

HELPFUL HINT

Remember to speak loud and clear for all to hear, even when your character is being quiet.

PRAY

Lord, thank you for my voice.

LISTEN TO GOD

ASK - Show me a time when I used my voice for you.
Show me a time when I should have spoken up but didn't.

Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless, and see that they get justice. Proverbs 31:9 NLT

My Name _____ Character Name _____

INVESTIGATE

What was your character's 'moment before', and how does that effect how they start the monologue?

What has changed about your character from the beginning of the monologue to the end?

What is your character going to do right after the monologue?

DO

FILM your monologue using what you've learned today to put the finishing touches on your piece.

CRITIQUE your own work, then do it again.

TRY filming from 3 different angles to see how different audience positions will experience the piece.

Angle 1: _____
Angle 2: _____
Angle 3: _____

ANALYZE

At what point in the monologue did a character shift happen? Why?

How can that affect your performance?

REFLECT

What have I learned about myself through this script/process?

What have I learned about God?

The message of the scripture is:

The message of the monologue is:

There's no short cut to getting comfortable with a script. It takes time and focus, but, just imagine how it will feel when you stand there in front of an audience and are completely confident in what you're about to do. Let's get there!

DON'T KNOW WHERE TO START?

HERE'S SOME EXERCISES TO HELP YOU MEMORIZE:

Write

Write out your monologue, or at the very least, write out the parts you tend to forget. Always include the sentence before so that your brain creates clear pathways to that tricky spot.

Imagine

Imagine a clear inner monologue in your head that connects the sentence you have memorized to the sentence you get stumped on.

Voice Record

Voice record yourself reading the monologue a little slowly. Listen to it over and over with the goal of being able to speak the lines before the recording does. When you forget a part, go back 10 seconds and try again.

Video

Video yourself performing the monologue and watch what happens to you when you forget a line. Analyze what your character should be thinking at that point which would lead to the line you forget.

Get a Friend

Get a friend to keep an eye on the script as you speak the words to them from memory, inviting them to let you know when you've skipped something.

Copies

Put copies of your monologue everywhere you can: the bathroom mirror, inside your locker, on the microwave.

Cut Up

Cut up your script line by line (maybe get an extra copy to do this) and mix up the order. Then, reassemble it.

Walk

Walk around while you memorize line by line. The physical movement will help to keep you on task.

Sleep

Read that tricky section over 3x in bed, right before you go to sleep.

Level 3-4 | Memorization

Continued

HELPFUL HINT

Remember, nobody's going to be following along with the script to try to catch you making a mistake. They want you to succeed!

So, if you mess up, just keep going as best you can and honor the character's journey.

PRAY

Lord, thank you for the ability to learn and grow with you!

LISTEN TO GOD

ASK - Show me how memorizing scripture can change my life.

And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. Deuteronomy 6:6-9 NLT
