

When Justice is Done
A Call to Worship Monologue

By Kathryn Higgins

A call to worship, spoken with growing energy and enthusiasm; with the goal of evoking verbal response from the congregation. Taken directly from Proverbs 21:15, Leviticus 19:14-16, Deuteronomy 16:18-20, Deuteronomy 27:18-20 and Psalm 10:17-18.

When justice is done...
it brings joy to the righteous.

When justice is done...
The orphan has a home,
The fatherless have a father,

When justice is done...
The innocent are heard,
The lonely are invited in,
The afflicted are encouraged,
The grieving are cared for,

When justice is done...
Slander disappears,
Favoritism is squashed,
Cries are heard,
Judgement is fair,

When justice is done...
The oppressed have a defender,

Follow justice and justice alone, so that you may live and possess the land the Lord your God is giving you.

Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"
